

First block of text in a Gothic script, appearing to be a formal address or the beginning of a letter.

Second block of text in a Gothic script, continuing the formal address or letter.

Third block of text in a Gothic script, possibly a main body of text or a specific request.

Fourth block of text in a Gothic script, likely a closing or a signature block.