

A handwritten musical score on aged, yellowed paper. The score consists of ten staves of music, arranged in two groups of five. The notation is dense and includes various rhythmic values, accidentals, and dynamic markings. The paper shows signs of age, including foxing and some staining. The handwriting is in dark ink, and the overall appearance is that of an early manuscript.

Two empty musical staves, consisting of five lines each, located at the bottom of the page. They are completely blank, suggesting they were either left unused or the music was written on the reverse side of the page.
