

The image shows ten staves of handwritten musical notation. Each staff contains a series of rests, indicating a piece of music that is primarily silent or consists of a single note held for a long duration. The notation is written in a historical style, with the rests represented by short horizontal lines on the staff lines.

Handwritten text in a historical script, likely Hebrew, written on a single staff at the bottom of the page. The text consists of several characters and symbols, including a double bar line and a sharp sign, suggesting it might be a title or a specific instruction related to the music above.
