

*you can always trust a man who smokes a pipe a man who smokes a pipe is of the bulldog type merry and bright — quite allright now sit tight
gimme a light —
Here goes:*

the white spot the round spot the merry little white spot yorkshire pudding hot pot the black spot the soft spot rot!

fi stinkers and gaspers and bally cheroots to hell with all chewers of gum my grandfather once was sick in his boots he had lost his pipe in a scrum.

my mixture my mixture your mixture our mixture my mixture is blended for me mix mixtures for middies and spinsters and kiddies we will eat a welsb rabbit for tea, not me.

*ogopogo lucky pete
carbon cutters are a treat latakia and perique
keep a man well on his feet so —*

three cheers for old dunhill his pouch and his tube three cheers for his shells and his briars he'll send a selection for private inspection from duke street right down to blackfriars.

medium full and extra mild for the dumb the deaf the blind extra mild and strong and full now me lads you've got the pull that's the stuff for old john bull — full — stop.
