Allegro

Handwritten musical score on aged paper, featuring ten staves of music. The notation includes treble clefs, various note values (quarter, eighth, sixteenth notes), rests, and accidentals (sharps). The music is dense and appears to be a single melodic line. The bottom three staves are empty.

3 4

A page of handwritten musical notation on aged, yellowed paper. The page contains ten staves of music, each beginning with a treble clef and a 2/4 time signature. The notation is dense and includes various note values, rests, and dynamic markings such as tr. (trill), f. (forte), and tr. (trill). There are also some markings that look like tr. with a colon. The paper shows signs of age, including some staining and discoloration. The bottom of the page has three empty staves.

Sinfonia

The first section of the handwritten musical score consists of ten staves. The notation is in a single system, with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The music features a variety of rhythmic values, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. There are some ink stains on the paper, particularly a large one in the middle of the fourth staff.

Allegro

The second section of the handwritten musical score consists of ten staves. The notation is in a single system, with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The music is more rhythmic and energetic than the first section, featuring many sixteenth and thirty-second notes. There are some ink stains on the paper, particularly a large one in the middle of the fourth staff.
