Met.

The image shows a page of handwritten musical notation on aged, yellowed paper. The notation is organized into ten systems, each consisting of two staves. The first system begins with the tempo marking 'allegro'. The music is written in a cursive, historical style, featuring various note values, rests, and accidentals. The paper shows signs of wear, including some staining and irregular edges. At the bottom center, there is a circular stamp from the 'Sächs. Landes-Bibl.' (Saxon State Library).

Violino Solo.

96

Handwritten musical score for Violino Solo, consisting of 14 staves. The notation includes treble clefs, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature (C). The music features complex rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and various rests. The word "Andante" is written in the first system. The paper shows signs of age and wear, with some staining and irregular edges.

This image shows a page of handwritten musical notation on aged, yellowed paper. The score consists of approximately 14 staves, with some staves grouped by large curly braces on the left side. The notation is dense and includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and clefs. There are several instances of the number '98' written on the staves, possibly indicating measure numbers or section markers. The handwriting is in dark ink, and the paper shows signs of wear and tear, particularly at the edges.
