

The image shows an open manuscript with two pages of handwritten musical notation. The paper is aged and yellowed. The notation is dense and includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and clefs. On the left page, there are several staves of music. On the right page, the title "Nürnberg" is written at the top. The manuscript is placed on a surface with a ruler visible on the left edge.